

MC900P

COMMACHIO

The Comacchio MC900P is a versatile hydraulic drilling rig designed for various applications, including geotechnical investigations, environmental studies, and water well drilling. It boasts a high mast pull force, powerful rotary torque, and adaptable drilling configurations, ensuring reliable performance across a wide range of drilling tasks.

|                   |                                                                                                        |                                |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| ENGINE            | ▪ Deutz TCD 2013 L04                                                                                   |                                |
|                   | ▪ 126kW @ 2300rpm                                                                                      |                                |
| MAST & FEED       | ▪ Stroke: 5m                                                                                           | ▪ Maximum Pull Down: 80kN      |
|                   | ▪ Maximum Pull Up: 120kN                                                                               | ▪ Foot Clamp / Breakout System |
| DRILLING CAPACITY | ▪ BQ: up to 600m                                                                                       | ▪ HQ: up to 700m               |
|                   | ▪ NQ: up to 700m                                                                                       | ▪ PQ: up to 800m               |
| KEY SYSTEMS       | Comacchio CT60 Rotary Head, TMA TN-30 Main Winch, TMA WL-22 GF6 Wireline Winch, Triplex TR200 Mud Pump |                                |
| SAFETY & FEATURES | ▪ Head-Mounted Rod Loader suitable for up to 8½" pipe                                                  | ▪ Remote Trimming with Alarms  |
|                   | ▪ Interlocked Rotation Cage                                                                            | ▪ FOPS fitted to control panel |
|                   |                                                                                                        | ▪ Starlink Connectivity        |

